
The most complete and accurate global institutional database on the market

The Industry Leader

Ipreo's global institutional database is the standard resource for anyone in the institutional securities game. Many firms have tried and failed to create and maintain accurate, internally-maintained databases of institutional money managers. Clean data is the life blood of a firm's ability to execute... on many levels - it touches every business unit, impacting your bottom line and how the market perceives you. Known for over a decade for offering the premier institutional equity dataset, Ipreo has added comprehensive global fixed-income content to further your success.

We have invested significantly in infrastructure and resources to support our global research, content and collection enterprise. As a result of the time and energy allocated to this effort, we are confident our clients are provided with market-leading content on global, multi-asset class Buy-side and Sell-side contacts and institutions. Our superior technology enables us to collect and deliver content with incredible responsiveness and flexibility, whether it be through off-the-shelf applications or custom data feeds.

By leveraging Ipreo's core content management competency and industry expertise, firms can effectively outsource a burdensome and costly effort, both in terms of technology and human resources, freeing up resources to focus on the moneymaking activities your institution excels at. At the same time, we provide a solution to a common yet costly business problem among investment banks: managing and maintaining clean, reliable, consistent information across the organization.

Data Quality - Ipreo has a large, carefully trained and managed staff of capital markets research analysts.

This massive force exclusively manages, updates and grows our database. No company in the industry comes anywhere close to dedicating the same level of manpower and resources to content management. As a consequence, the quality and accuracy of the intelligence we deliver to our customers is unparalleled. Simply put, we are known in the marketplace as the most highly accurate, timely and well-scrubbed provider.

Expertise - Ipreo has compiled a first-class team of language speakers with country specialties to track market movements, the legislative environment, and local press. Our global collection effort is based, with appropriate local market adaptations, on our time-proven research methodology, which is known to produce the best details available to the market.

Global Brand - Having offices worldwide, Ipreo's research team is part of a global effort involving hundreds of staff members in the US, Europe, Africa and Asia. Ipreo leverages these global resources to improve quality, accuracy, and breadth of content to an even greater degree.
